

Report on Study visit to Horticulture Research Station (HRS), Rekalagunta, Ananathapur

First year students (2025 batch) of Sri Krishna Devaraya College of Horticultural Sciences, Ananathapur had visited HRS, Rekulakunta along with staff members as a part of course curriculum on 25-11-2025. HRS, Scientist Dr. Dinesh sir explained the activities of HRS and AICRP on Fruits. During the visit students were explained about the different nursery techniques followed in horticultural crops like grafting, budding, transplanting, hardening etc. The scientists of the station briefly explained the ongoing farm and research activities of the station. During the visit students are came to know about the important varieties of dry land crops like ber, aonla, pomegranate, fig, date palm, phalsa etc. Staff members Dr. Sathish B R and Dr. Manjula from fruit science department had accompanied the students during the visit. Students were surprised to know about the red pulp type tamarind variety Aanatha Rudhira developed by HRS and dwarf coconut types in the station. Finally, students expressed their vote of thanks to the station head Dr. Subramanyam sir and all the staff members of HRS and also express their opinion about practical benefits of the study visit.

