FRESHERS' Day celebrations were grandly organised at Sri Krishna Devaraya Horticulture College in Anantapur town, under the supervision of the college's Associate Dean, Dr N Narayana Reddy.

The chief guests for the event were Dr Palle Venkata Krishna Kishore, Chairman of Sri Balaji Educational Institutions, retired DGP N Shankar Reddy, college management representative K Srikanth Reddy, and Dr Y Santosh Kumar Reddy.

The programme began with paying tribute to Palle Uma by garlanding her portrait.

As part of the programme, the second-year B.Sc. Horticulture (Honors) students welcomed the first-year students who had joined the college by calling them onto the stage and presenting them with a flower.

A large group photograph of students and faculty, likely a graduation or final year group, posed in three rows on a stage. They are dressed in formal attire, with men in white shirts and dark trousers, and women in various colors. The stage is decorated with yellow and green garlands. In the background, there are arched windows and a blue banner. The photo is taken from a slightly elevated angle.

Later, the guests spoke, emphasizing that there is a great demand for the Horticulture course.
